Bryonna Davis Named PBC Women's Basketball Player of the Week

Posted: Dec 23, 2013

SAVANNAH, Ga. - Armstrong Atlantic State University senior Bryonna Davis has been named the final Peach Belt Conference women's basketball Player of the Week for the 2013 calendar year, announced today by league officials.

Davis averaged 24.5 points per game as Armstrong notched a pair of wins right before the Christmas break. The senior from Gary, Ind., celebrated her birthday in style last Monday, scoring 34 points in the Pirates' come-from-behind 75-70 win at Young Harris. It was the most points for an Armstrong player since 2008.

She followed that up with 15 points in a 67-54 win at Eckerd on Saturday. For the week, Davis also averaged 5.5 rebounds per game and shot 45 percent from three-point range (9-of-20).

Davis is the first Armstrong player to earn PBC Player of the Week honors since Mauri Wells was the Player of the Week on Nov. 21, 2011. This is her first career Player of the Week honor.

Armstrong returns to action on Thursday, January 2nd, hosting No. 7-ranked Clayton State in a 5:30 p.m. Peach Belt Conference contest at Alumni Arena.
